THE MOTORHOME CLUB OF SOUTH AFRICA CODE OF CONDUCT

The following Code of Conduct has been established to guide the behaviour of all members of The Motorhome Club of South Africa. These principles are designed to promote the interests of the Club and ensure a respectful, enjoyable experience for everyone involved.

1. Promotion of Club Interests

As a member, I am committed to furthering the interests of The Club in a manner that benefits all members. By participating positively, I contribute to the collective wellbeing and reputation of the organisation.

2. Compliance of Motorhome Standards

I will comply with my motorhome in accordance with the specifications and standards set by The Club. This ensures safety, reliability, and a consistent standard across all members' vehicles."

"Membership of the Motorhome Club of South Africa is restricted to vehicles that comply with the principles and standards of being a "Motorhome". Such vehicles must be licenced as a "Self-Propelled Caravan" and have the basics of a bed, fridge, cooking plate and built-in cupboards. Converted cargo vans must comply with these standards.

3. Responsible Use of Club Facilities

When using facilities owned by or associated with The Club, I will act considerately and avoid causing any nuisance to others. Respect for shared resources is fundamental to a harmonious club environment.

4. Conduct of Family and Visitors

I will ensure that all individuals associated with me—whether family members or visitors to my motorhome—adhere to the standards of behaviour expected of Club members. Their conduct should always reflect positively on The Club.

5. Adherence to Site Rules

I will comply fully with the rules and regulations established by the owners of any sites visited or occupied by The Club. Observing these rules is essential for maintaining good relationships with site owners and the wider community.

6. Upholding the Club's Reputation

I will always conduct myself in a manner that does not bring The Club or its members into disrepute. My actions should continuously reflect the values and integrity of The Motorhome Club of South Africa.

This Code of Conduct was tabled and adopted at the Annual General Meeting on 18 October 1998.
